hawken brier's nursery

hawken brier is the luckiest baby boy in the whole wide world. born just three weeks ago he's already been immersed in a life of fine design. his mommy, lindsay anyon brier, principal of anyon interior design, created his calm, modern nursery and filled it with warmth and love. besides his sutton panel restoration hardware crib, none of his room's pieces are from baby furniture collections.

over hawken's changing table (a west elm dresser with a changing table topper from the land of nod) lindsay hung photographs taken by hawken's daddy on their honeymoon in tanzania). they also outfitted the space with custom quadrille roman shades, serena & lily bedding, pottery barn bookcases, and hand painted horizontal stripes. keep your fingers crossed that mommy brier finds the before photos of the space. in the meantime enjoy hawken's amazing afters!

What a beautiful nursery. I just love that it's stylish and calm with sweet animals all about. Cutie pie.

Lindsay created the stripes with Benjamin Moore's OC-23 Classic Gray and OC-17 White Dove.

The side table is vintage McGuire Furniture that Lindsay had re-lacquered in orange!
