Boy Nursery :: Gray Stripes

I love love love this nursery. Probably because I love white, and I have white and gray stripes in my office. However this room is modern, calming and simple. It was designed by the Lindsay Brier, who owns Anyon Interior Design. Read about Lindsay and see more pictures here.

I love this nursery! We used the same S&L bedding and did big blue/white horizontal stripes. I love how they used grey, it creates a very serene feeling in the room. Love your blog, glad to have found you!

The white and gray stripes match the area rug in my living room, which sadly I need to replace because it's so badly stained.
